HEARTS ON FIRE AWARD

JESUITS WEST PROVINCE

The new province of the Jesuits West was formed July 2017 by merging the California and Oregon provinces. Jesuits West, under the leadership of provincial, Fr. Scott Santarosa, S.J., serves the ten Western states of the United States and is a broad network of approximately 100 ministries and works offering education through universities, high schools and elementary schools; Ignatian spirituality through parishes and retreat and spirituality centers; help and guidance to the poor and marginalized through social ministries; education and training for the next generations of Jesuit priests and brothers; and care of senior and infirm Jesuits who have dedicated their lives to the service of others.

LIS wishes to pay tribute to the Jesuits and their absolutely essential contributions to the vitality and inspiration of the Loyola Institute for Spirituality from its earliest origins. This pastoral vehicle in Orange County offers the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises in a variety of forms for the transformation and formation of disciples for Christ and for spreading the Good News of the Gospel.

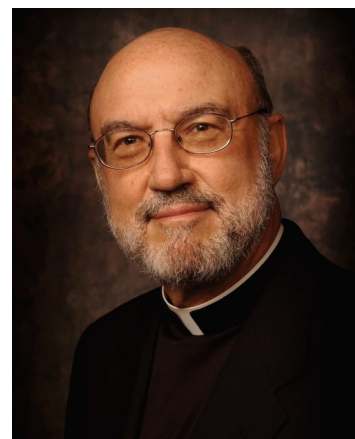

WRITER'S AWARD IN SPIRITUALITY

REV. RICHARD HAUSER, S.J., S.T.L., PH.D.

Fr. Richard Hauser has been a dynamic, nationally recognized leader in Jesuit spirituality for over 45 years. He was a founder of the esteemed masters in spirituality degree at Creighton University.

Ordained in 1968, he earned a licentiate in Sacred Theology (St. Louis U., 1968) and a doctorate in Religious Education (Catholic University of America, 1973). He has been a theology professor at Creighton University since 1972. He is currently professor emeritus, and is assistant to the president for mission. Fr. Hauser has published numerous articles on theology and spirituality and has authored three books: In His Spirit: A Guide to Today's Spirituality, Moving in the Spirit: Becoming a Contemplative in Action, and Finding God in Troubled Times. In his writings, Fr. Hauser examines the topics that Catholics grapple with on a daily basis, including the unique role of the Holy Spirit and understanding the suffering humans experience.

On May 5, Fr. Hauser will give a three-hour, interactive workshop at St. Timothy's Parish in Laguna Niguel.
