

DARYL GRIGSBY

SYNODALITY: WHY IT STILL MATTERS

Join us for an intimate conversation with Daryl Grigsby about the final report of the Synod on Synodality issued in October 2024, and why it matters to us as people of faith. Pope Francis began the Synod on Synodality in 2021, both as a four-year formal process and as an ongoing feature of Catholic life utilizing a process of Conversations in the Spirit which includes prayer, silence, listening carefully to each other, responding to what resonated, and communal discernment.

Wednesday, October 1, 2025

7:00 - 8:00 PM (PT)

About the Presenter:

Daryl Grigsby has a Master's of Pastoral Studies from Seattle University School of Theology and Ministry. He is a retired Public Works Director who completed the Spiritual Exercises in Daily Life retreat at Loyola Institute for Spirituality. He is the author of four books and is a regular contributor to the National Catholic Reporter. He serves on various non-profit boards and volunteers for Get on the Bus, a California organization connecting children with their incarcerated parents.

ONLINE VIA ZOOM
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
SCAN TO REGISTER OR VISIT
[LOYOLAINSTITUTE.ORG/
SPiritual-CONVERSATIONS](http://LOYOLAINSTITUTE.ORG/SPiritual-CONVERSATIONS)